1	a yan da da a da anin'a Antana da Cababada da da antata da amana da da da da anin'a anin'a anin'a da da da da a
2. Position Title: Senior Accountant	3. Salary Level: 8-7/6-5	4. Division: Accounting/Treasury Department
5. Reports To: Deputy Secretary Accountant General Deputy Accountant General	6. Direct Reports: Accountant	countant
7. Primary Objective of the Position: To ensure that the	he Ministry exercises proper	Primary Objective of the Position: To ensure that the Ministry exercises proper financial management and control with regard to its functions.
8. Position Overview
9. Financial: $12,116 to $13,962 per annum, or $466 to $537 fortnightly	9. Le	Legal: Public Finance (Control and audit) 1998 Financial Regulation 2011 Procurement Act 2002 National Condition of Service 2012
11. Internal Stakeholders:	12. Ext	12. External Stakeholders:
Permanent Secretary		Donor Partners
Deputy Secretary		State Owned Entitles
Accountant General		NGOs
Subordinates		General Public
Civil Servants State Owned Entities	To be	To be referred to Manager
To be referred to Manager.		Issues on customer service Way forward in resolving issues on hand
 Reporting any defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to that Ministry. Any other duties that may PS or AG to enable him, as the Accounting Officer, to manage economically, efficiently and 	thin the Ministry that Ministry. im, as the ficiently and	Fraud activities
Accounting Officer, to manage economicany, entired and effectively.	חכובוווו) מווא

Administrative Activities a) Overall supervision, maintenance, control and reporting of the following funds: ii. Recurrent Revenue and Expenditure; iii. Development Project Funds, iii. Below-the-line Revolving Frands. b) To coordinate the annual budget process for the above funds. c) Preparation of final accounts for the above funds. c) Preparation of the above funds. c) Preparation of final accounts for the above funds. c) Preparation of the Premanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General with the Ministry with regard to the use of the sesources and any directions given by the Accounter's the final accounts for the Ministry with reconciliation. c) Preparation of virements of subsidy payments to statutory and the public at large. corporations corporations c) Minimal or zero defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with resources c) Minimal or zero defects of accounting systems withi	Key Result Area/Major Responsibilities	Major Activities/Duties	Per	Performance Measures/Outcomes
i. Recurrent Revenue and Expenditure; ii. Development Project Funds; iii. Below-the-line Revolving Funds. To coordinate the annual budget process for the above funds. Preparation of final accounts for the above funds To sign for all payments and issues of all accountable forms of documents Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine	Administrative Activities
iii. Below-the-line Revolving Funds. To coordinate the annual budget process for the above funds. Preparation of final accounts for the above funds To sign for all payments and issues of all accountable forms of documents Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry with regard to the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine	٠	i. Recurrent Revenue and Expenditure; ii.Development Project Funds;	103
Preparation of final accounts for the above funds. Preparation of final accounts for the above funds To sign for all payments and issues of all accountable forms of documents Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry with regard to the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine		iii. Below-the-line Revolving Funds.	- Month	y reconciliation.
Preparation of final accounts for the above funds To sign for all payments and issues of all accountable forms of documents Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry with regard to the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Quarte	rly payments of subsidy to avoid cash documents Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry with regard to the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			flow pr	oblems.
Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry with regard to the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Submis	sion of virements/supplementaries in
Control and regularisation of all subsidy payments to statutory corporations Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry With regard to the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine		documents	time to	avoid the cry out from the Ministry
Preparation of virements and supplementary requests by divisions to Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			and the	public at large.
Minister FED Reporting to the Permanent Secretary as well as the Accountant General on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry with regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time - to time determine on any serious defects of accounting systems within the Ministry regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Minim	al or zero defects of accounting systems regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			within	the Ministry with regard to the use of Maximize the abilities of directly controlled staff, by ensuring, through liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine		regard to the use of resources entrusted to the Ministry	resourc	es liaison with the Deputy Accountant General (Human Resource Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Trainin	g or Development needs are specified
Development), their proper training and development Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			when r	equired
Maximise the performance of these staff in accordance with the Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine
Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Minim	al or no issue regarding the staff
by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management practices including motivation, delegation, appraisal and discipline Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine		Government's National Conditions of Services and any directions given	perior	nance or their customer service
Provide technical support and advice to the Minister, Permanent Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine		by the Accountant General by the implementation of good management
Secretary and Accountant General as required by them Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine			- Advice	are provided promptly when needed
Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may from time to time determine Undertake such other duties as the Accountant General may	- Other a	ssigned duties are completed at any to time determine	set time	trame.

 Confident of a staff to perform his/her work Efficient and effective work Minimal or no issues raise by internal or external customers (Customer satisfactory) 	a) Accountants,b) Assistant Accountants,c) Account Officers	Supervision
- Final Statements of Account is prepare in accordance with the Timetable and Format established by the Accountant General	j) Prepare, in accordance with the timetable and format established by the Accountant General, the final Statements of Account as required by the Public Finance (Control and Audit) Ordinance for all the items in 2 and 3 above and in particular the accounts of the Revenue Equalisation Reserve Fund (RERF).
 Ensure that payment due by Government are made promptly and accurately 	particular: i) Establish a Public Debt Register
- Assets and Liabilities are accurately recorded	h) Ensure the maintenance of, and where necessary establish, systems which accurately record all the assets and liabilities of the Government as required by the Public Finance (Control and Audit) Ordinance. In
- Maintenance of proper books and records for Special Funds are proper.	g) Ensure maintenance of proper books and records for Special Funds held by the Chief Accountant
- Reconciliation should be proper and represent	f) Reconciling of sums placed on Deposit with the Government
- Accuracy of records	e) Establish a system for recording all stores and stocks, where the Accountant General has determined that such records must be
- Ensure that accurate records are maintained at all times	d) Establish a register of Government's Investments
- Nature and amount of Governments Contingent Liabilities are accurately recorded at any one time	c) Establish a register of contingent Liabilities
 All sums due are brought to account promptly All sums due to Government are brought 	 a) Establish a Register of Loans made by Government; b) Establish a register of Arrears of Revenue and ensure, in liaison with 	Financial Activities

10. Key Challenges	11. Selection Criteria
Officer is to:	11.1 PQR (Position Qualification Requirement):
 Ensure that service to the public are consistent and 	Education:
transparent;	Degree in Accounting or Finance Carry out his/her work efficiently and effectively to produce a quality of work;	Experience:
 Willing and able to be more than most to assume 	Should have worked in middle management and/or middle post
additional duties even if it is beyond his/her assignment and working hours.	at the account for at least 3 years
	Job Training:
	On the job training
	11.2 Key Attributes (Personal Qualities):
	Knowledge ➤ Should have knowledge on Attaché, MYOB or other related Accounting Package
	 Computer and Electronics Supervisory Skills/knowledge
	Attributos
	 Mature, reliable, responsible and having absolute honesty Willing to train and develop accounting skills when opportunities arise